

Karen DeMartino M.Ed.
Senior Therapist
Sargent Child and Family Services

Karen received her Master's in Education from Cambridge College. She has worked in the field of education for the past 20 years in a variety of settings, including as a kindergarten teacher, gym teacher and academic support educator at the middle and high school levels. Karen has also worked as a behavior therapist in several sub-separate and inclusion-based classrooms.

For the past seven years, Karen has been a home-based ABA therapist. She brings a wealth of experience to her practice and is always continuing to develop as an educator. Karen lives on the South Shore with her two sons and loves to walk the beach each morning. She also enjoys yoga, hiking, traveling and exploring different countries.
