

Michael Kaplan
Principal Attorney and Owner
Law Office of Michael B. Kaplan

Michael is the principal attorney and owner of the Law Office of Michael B. Kaplan, a general practice with a focus in immigration and litigation.

Outside of his practice, Michael has worked pro bono with Victim Rights Law Center, representing victims of sexual assault in civil actions against their abusers; Kids in Need of Defense, representing unaccompanied minors in deportation proceedings; and the Dilley Pro Bono Project, where Michael traveled to Texas to represent detained families seeking asylum at the border.

In 2017, Michael founded the South Shore Chapter of the Young Democrats of Massachusetts, where he serves as chair.